It's time for equal pay for equal work in Louisiana.

At 65 cents on the dollar, Louisiana has the highest gender wage gap in the nation.

Here's how much women make for every dollar a man makes in each parish:

53 cents Acadia
74 cents Allen
64 cents Ascension
52 cents Assumption
63 cents Avoyelles
60 cents Beauregard
72 cents Bienville
74 cents Bossier
70 cents Caddo
62 cents Calcasieu
59 cents Caldwell
60 cents Cameron
61 cents Catahoula
60 cents Claiborne
76 cents Concordia
68 cents DeSoto
70 cents East Baton Rouge
71 cents East Carroll
61 cents East Feliciana
51 cents Evangeline
59 cents Franklin
63 cents Grant
64 cents Iberia
65 cents Iberville
61 cents Jackson
78 cents Jefferson
63 cents Jefferson Davis
52 cents La Salle
64 cents Lafayette
60 cents Lafourche
69 cents Lincoln
64 cents Livingston

67 cents Madison
74 cents Morehouse
60 cents Natchitoches
80 cents Orleans — Only parish above the national average.
72 cents Ouachita
62 cents Plaquemines
65 cents Pointe Coupee
74 cents Rapides
64 cents Red River
64 cents Richland
60 cents Sabine
75 cents St. Bernard
65 cents St. Charles
61 cents St. Helena
61 cents St. James
68 cents St. John the Baptist
56 cents St. Landry
58 cents St. Martin
58 cents St. Mary
67 cents St. Tammany
67 cents Tangipahoa
52 cents Tensas
57 cents Terrebonne
66 cents Union
58 cents Vermillion
67 cents Vernon
76 cents Washington
71 cents Webster
69 cents West Baton Rouge
49 cents West Carroll — Worst parish in the worst state for pay equity in America.
64 cents West Feliciana
60 cents Winn

#EqualPay4LA